KS Governmental Ethics Commission

Dear Carol:

This letter is in response to the Commission letter dated September 9, 2009 regarding errors to candidate reports. I have taken the corrective actions to three errors. Those corrective actions are listed below.

Action 1: Regarding the acceptance of a two campaign contributions from UAW during the general election period in 2008, I have returned a $500 check to the UAW PAC (see attached check). I will make that correction on Schedule C of the January 10, 2010 Receipts and Expenditures report.

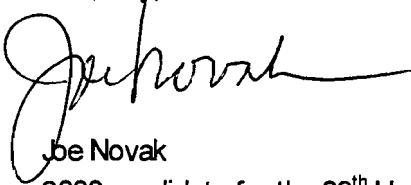

Action 2: Regarding the error to Schedule C on the contribution from the Kansas Trial Lawyers Consumer/Civil Justice PAC, I have electronically corrected the contribution to reflect the actual amount of $200.00.

Action 3: Regarding the disbursement of $100 to the Greater KC Women's Political Caucus on 9/11/08, I have made the electronic correction on Schedule C to more accurately reflect a "purchase of tickets."

I await to see if my correction on action 2 will reflect automatically on the cover summary page. Please advise me if this still needs correction.

I regret any inconvenience my errors may have caused. I appreciate the work of the commission in enforcing all ethics rules and regulations.

Sincerely,

Joe Novak
2008 candidate for the 39th House Seat

xc: Charley Vogt, campaign treasurer
