Carol E. Williams
Executive Director

Topeka, KS 66612-1287

Dear Ms. Williams:

On Saturday, October 17, 2009, I received a copy of the letter sent to my Treasurer, from the Ethics Committee. We were informed that two checks sent to the Ballard Campaign were not included on the October 27, 2008 report. I called the Commission and spoke with you on Monday, October 19. I also asked my Treasurer, Chuck Fisher, to give you a follow-up phone call concerning the two (2) checks ($150 and $250). After speaking with you and getting clarification, we found that some checks should have been included on the December 31, 2008 report. The checks in question were in my possession, but I was in and out of town, due to a family emergency (several of the checks were still in my mail). As a result, I was unable to deliver the checks to my treasurer in time for him to meet the reporting periods. I delivered the checks to him in January 2009.

Enclosed is a list of the checks and the amended reports. I regret any inconvenience this has caused the Ethics Committee and I have apologized to my outstanding treasurer. We take pride in meeting deadlines and in submitting accurate, and timely reports.

Please let me know if you need additional information.

Sincerely,

Barbara W. Ballard
State Representative, 44th District
