AMENDED

This is a summary letter covering the letters dated August 26, 2011, concerning the finance reports of the Lee Modesitt for State Rep. campaign.

In one letter, Schedule D Transactions of the July 26, 2010 report was mentioned as showing an account payable of $2,500 to 502 media. The letter mentioned that $900 was paid to 502 media as of the Oct. 25, 2010 report. That amount was actually $500 as listed in the Oct. 25, 2010 report, rather than $900 mentioned in the letter received. The remaining $2,000 balance was covered by a loan from Lee Modesitt to the campaign. Schedule D of the Oct. 25 report indicates this loan of $2,000 and it should have been noted that this was paid out of Lee Modesitt's personal account to cover the account payable to 502 media.

In the second letter received, it discusses an amount of $1,100 paid to 502 media listed on the January 10 finance report. This amount was indeed paid, but for services other than a website. This amount covered the cost of graphic design of the campaign's logo, palm cards, bumper stickers, and all other campaign material not related to a website. This amount should not have been crossed with the $2,500 paid previously to 502 media for a website.

Enclosed with this letter is the updated finance sheets covering the other issues mentioned in the letters received.

Thank you
