Dear Madame Executive Director:

Please be advised that my name is Michael J. Peterson, and I am a candidate for the 32nd District in Wyandotte County in the House of Representatives. I was advised that I had to appoint a new treasurer for the new district and did send one of the forms into your office which I assume that you might have received but obviously you didn't. I want to be certain to get this in before the deadline because I do not have another form to fill out.

All of the contents of my former treasurer's application or appointment are the same except for the district number. I am currently running as a filed candidate for the 32nd District, located in Wyandotte County and adopt as my treasurer the one who was my treasurer in the 37th District, and her name is Ann Golubski. Hopefully, this will suffice until I am able to get another appointment form and appoint her properly. I am very sorry for this inconvenience, and I hope this works. If not, I will file another form.

Thank you very much.

Respectfully,

Michael J. Peterson, Representative
32nd District
