Saturday, October 15, 2011

Dear GEC staff and Kansas Secretary of State staff,

This letter is to reply to the notification of Material Error or Omission that I received from Carol Williams at the Governmental Ethics Commission. I apologize for the delay; I had not visited my PO Box in a while, and I had not expected a letter from you regarding my 2010 report. I just sent a brief Email to Carol, as well (I realize it is currently Saturday, as I write this).

I am sending this letter to both the office of the GEC and Sec. of State, because my understanding is that each office eventually wants to see this letter.

After my closing signature, I will include copies of two items:

1. A Last Minute Independent Expenditure report from October 29, 2010 (three pages).

Please note:

- a. This is already on file with the GEC.
- b. It can be viewed online, here:

http://ethics.ks.gov/CFAScanned/PACs/2010ElecCycle/LastMinute/PAC625_GL_F_1029.pdf.

2. A Last Minute Independent Expenditure report from October 30, 2010 (three pages).

Please note:

- a. This is already on file with the GEC.
- b. It can be viewed online, here:

http://ethics.ks.gov/CFAScanned/PACs/2010ElecCycle/LastMinute/PAC625_GL_F_1030.pdf.

In your Notification, you request further information on a $500 expense paid to Contact Services, LLC (for phone calls), and on a $6340 expense made to Sir Speedy (for mailing and printing).

All of these expenditures were in regard to candidate Jason Osterhaus of Overland Park, who was seeking the nomination of Johnson County Commissioner, District 4.

Before I go further, I will refer you briefly to the two attached Last Minute reports (from Oct. 29 and Oct. 30, 2010), in which I list a total of $5,000 spent toward mailings with Sir Speedy, and a total of $70 spent toward phone calls with the company Message Communications, and a total of $500 spent toward phone calls with Contact Services, LLC. All three of these expenses were with regard to candidate Jason Osterhaus.

In retrospect, it looks like I omitted Osterhaus' name and address on Schedule C, but I correctly listed his name (though not his address) on the Last Minute reports.

For the record, I'm not sure I was actually required to submit the $70 expense, because I'm not aware that it was "expressly advocate[ing]" the nomination of candidate Osterhaus. It may have been merely an informational call, though the information was in regard to Osterhaus.

The final attachment to this letter will be an amended Schedule C (page 4 of 5); it will contain the same information as the current Schedule C, but added will be the name and address of 2010 candidate Jason Osterhaus.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Hodge

Please consider this letter as an amendment to my end-of-year report from 2010 (filed on January 10, 2011).

The following items are being amended:

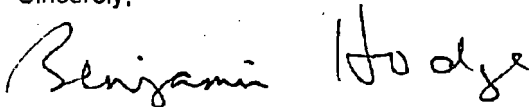

1. The total amount of unitemized contributions should be $384.59. It was originally reported as $135 (an addition of $249.59)
2. The total contributions and other receipts should be $6584.59
3. The total cash available this period should be $8519.65
4. The end of the year balance (cash on hand) should be $262.88. It was originally reported as $13.29.

No changes are being made to the itemized contributions, nor are any amendments being made to any amount related to expenditures.

Attached, you will find an amended page 1 of the report from January 10, 2011. I called your office this morning, and I was told that it would be sufficient to file page 1 along with this letter.

Please contact me if you have further questions. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Hodge
