I have not gotten the latest report turned in because my mom is in the hospital in critical condition and I have not been home since the second of January and I'm not sure yet when I will be home to get that form. I do know that there were no contributions received or spent since the last report. The only changes have been a little interest paid on the checking account. As soon as I am back home I will fill that out and send in an amended form. If you have questions just contact me through email. Thanks, Lynda Foster. Treasurer, Sunflower Dairy PAC
