AMENDED

Dear Carol:

Recently, I was reviewing my January 10, 2008, campaign finance report and discovered that in four instances I have accepted campaign contributions in excess of the allowable limit. Those excess contributions have now been returned to the contributors.

Please accept this letter as making the following corrections to my January 10, 2008, Receipts and Expenditures Report of a Candidate for State Office:

1. On Schedule A, page 7, the $1,000 contribution from Farmers Employees & Agents puts their primary contribution $500 over the $1,000 limit; therefore, I have reimbursed Farmers Employees & Agents in the amount of $500. See attachment.
2. On Schedule A, page 5, the $250 contribution from Ferrell Construction of Topeka, Inc., puts their primary contribution $250 over the $1,000 limit; therefore, I have reimbursed Ferrell Construction of Topeka, Inc., $250. See attachment.
3. On Schedule A, page 5, the $500 contribution from Martin Tractor puts their primary contribution $500 over the $1,000 limit; therefore, I have reimbursed Martin Tractor $500. See attachment.
4. On Schedule A, page 12, the $500 contribution from Phil Ruffin puts his primary contribution $500 over the $1,000 limit; therefore, I have reimbursed Mr. Ruffin $500. See attachment.
