Dear Mr. Mlynek,

On July 2, 2007, you made a contribution by check #9399 of $100. Then on September 21, 2007, you made another most generous contribution by Discover Card of $2,000. Under Kansas campaign laws, an individual can contribute no more than $2,000 in any election cycle, and we must refund $100 to you.

This error occurred because I misspelled your last name when I entered the $100 in to our data base spelling it "Mylnek". Therefore, when your most generous $2000 contribution arrived and I spelled your name correctly in the data base, I did not realize that you had gone over the contribution limit.

We report all contributions to the Kansas Governmental Ethics Commission, and they discovered my error and brought it to my attention.

Enclosed is our check for $100 which takes care of the problem. I apologize for the error and hope this all makes sense to you! Please give me a call if you need any more information.

Thank you for supporting the Governor's campaigns so generously.

Sincerely,

Jett Elmer
Director of Operations
